25X1A [REDACTED] See [REDACTED] for previous report on Suho power negotiations.

1. On 22 March 1947 the Soviet commander in Sinuiju (Shingishu) (124-24,40-06) sent a message to General LIANG Kai (梁 慨) (Shanghai Note: Representative of the Third Peace Pacification Area), in answer to LIANG's effort to open negotiations concerning 50-50 distribution of the power from the Suiho Dam (124-58,40-28) which General LIANG attempted to bring up during the 17 January conference. The message stated that no Korean government has as yet been established and that no negotiations can be entered into until one has been formed.
2. In addition, mention was made that no Chinese Communists are stationed along the Korean side of the Yalu River and that shooting incidents can therefore not be attributed to them. The Soviet commander requested a discussion with General LIANG concerning the shooting of a Soviet soldier at Changtlenokou (124-50,40-24).^{*} General LIANG is now absent from Antung (124-22,40-08) and the Chinese have given an indefinite answer to the Soviet request for a conference, pending LIANG's return.
